

2026-2027 Ballet Company Packet

Congratulations to your dancer for making Company at Twin Cities Ballet. Dancing in the Twin Cities Ballet Company under the direction of Miss Eka is both a privilege and a wonderful opportunity. Company dancers often form close friendships that last throughout their years in ballet; they also provide support and encouragement for each other as their skills grow with purposeful and rigorous practice. Their growth across the year is always tremendous.

While some dancers' families have experience with dance and ballet, many do not. We've written out some of the expectations below in hopes of helping new families get a sense of the arc of a year in the Twin Cities Ballet Company.
